Came to Bismarck Just After Railroad Was Pushed Through To Pacific Coast

Philip Harvey, one of the pioneers of Bismarck and Burleigh county, passed away at 8 o'clock this morning in St. Alexius hospital after a long illness. He has been ill most of the time for the last three months, suffering from a tumor which caused complications.

Mr. Harvey, who was 68 years old, first saw Bismarck when is was scarcely more than a frontier camp. Born in Hazel Green, Wisconsin, in April, 1853, he went to La Mars, Iowa, and from there came to Bismarck in 1874, shortly after the Northern Pacific railroad was pushed west to the Missouri river, and when hardy and adventurous pioneers flocked to this section from many aprts of the country. The railroad had been completed but eight months when Mr. Harvey first set foot in the frontier town.

With other pioneers he sought out employment of various sort offered in the new country and soon turned to agriculture. He obtained a claim 8 1-2 miles north of Bismarck on Burnt Creek, and owned the land since that time, his entire holdings amounting to about 600 acres.

In 1874 Mr. Harvey went into the Black Hills on one of the old freighting trains and remained there for about a year, before returning to Bismarck.

Mr. Harvey was active in affairs in Burleigh county for many years. He was a strong Democrat, and had taken an active part in Democratic politics. He had been a member of the school board and road supervisor in his township. He was known as a man whose word was his bond, public spirited and forceful.

Mr. Harvey's wife died many years ago. He is survived by the following brothers and sisters: Arthur and John Harvey, of Tactola, S. D.; Peter Harvey, of Burnt Creek township; Mrs. Ellen Mahoney, 318 Thirteenth street, and Mrs. John O'Brien, of Ft. Robinson Neb.

Mr. Harvey was a member of St. Mary's church, and funeral services probably will be held in the church Monday.

TOO COLD FOR "TENDERFEET" AND DEER SEASON ENDS WITHOUT DEATH

North Dakota's first deer hunting season in five years ended without a death, according to reports received from over the state.

There were many near accidents and reports have been received of one or two people being wounded by stray bullets. Local hospitals reported no one was brought to them suffering from wounds received while hunting.

John Handtman, Jr., of Manlan, narrowly escaped death when a stray bullet cut a furrow over the cheek bone.

One old-time hunter explained the situation by saying that the weather has been so cold that the tenderfeet would not go hunting, and most of the hunters in the field were experienced and careful men.

While there has been no one killed among hunters reported there have been a lot of casualties to their trophies. Several hunters have reported they shot deer and hung them up to freeze, when they returned the deer had been stolen.

ARBUCKLE MAY KNOW HIS FATE BEORE NIGHT

Arguments in Case of Manslaughter Against Actor Are Nearing Close

WITNESS SAID POISONED

San Francisco, Dec. 2.—Possibility that before he slept tonight Roscoe Arbuckle would know the decision of the jury which is trying him for manslaughter loomed big when court opened today.

The prosecution late yesterday finished its first address to the jury and the defense began what was expected to be its only discussion of the evidence it had adduced.

The case was expected to reach the jury sometime in the afternoon.

The poisoning of Mrs. Irene Morgan, a leading witness for the defense, and the beginning of the closing arguments of both sides were outstanding developments yesterday in the trial.

Leo Friedman, an assistant district attorney, made the first exposition of the prosecution's contention that it had presented an unbreakable chain of evidence to link the comedian with the death of Virginia Rappe, whom it charges Arbuckle injured at a party in his rooms at a hotel here. Gavin McNab began what seemed likely to be the defense's only address, but was interrupted by adjournment of court. The court room was crowded.

Fatty Not Worried

Arbuckle appeared indifferent during Friedman's argument, gazing around or fingering shreds of paper. Friedman told the jury "that even if Arbuckle told the truth on the stand it would be strong enough to convict him, for he admitted he left Miss Rappe after her injury without calling a doctor or telling any one of her condition."

"Why has not the prosecution presented Bambina Maude Delmont, the complaining witness in this case?" McNab asked. He praised Mrs. Morgan as a "heroine" wounded in battle. Finger prints on the doors of the hotel room used by Arbuckle and said by the prosecution to be those of Arbuckle and Miss Rappe, were called "spooks" by McNab. "Arbuckle was but ten minutes in that room with Miss Rappe," he said.

The action of the district attorney in placing witnesses under his custody "on the theory that they may be tampered with" was attacked by McNab.

Claims Terrorization

Miss Zeh Prevost, prosecution witness was "terrorized" he said in her appearances before the police and the grand jury, because she would not say Miss Rappe, referring to Arbuckle, exclaimed "he killed me."

"Weird, fantastic absurdities were substituted for the testimony of Mrs. Delmont, the complaining witness," he said.

Friedman said Mrs. Morgan's record as a war nurse, as she outlined it on the stand, was subject to attack.

Fred Fishbach, a leading defense witness, was accused by Friedman of having attempted to take the blame of Miss Rappe's injury on his own shoulders. The defense testimony of Dr Franklin Shiels "blasted the defense's own theory that the bladder rupture which caused Miss Rappe's death might have resulted from the sudden immersion in a cold bath," Friedman said. Dr. Shiels testified he had no knowledge of a bladrupturing in this fashion.

PROBE PLANNED OF RECORDS OF STATE CREAM'RY

Commissioner of Agriculture and Labor to Ask Accountant to Examine Them

An accountant probably will be put to work upon the records of the Werner Experimental Creamery by Commissioner of Agriculture and Labor Kitchen with a view of ascertaining, if possible, the cost of operating the creamery and the results obtained.

Records of the experimental creamery, operation of which has been discontinued, were found scattered in the vault of the commissioner of agriculture and labor in several boxes and files.

The creamery was established for the purpose of ascertaining facts regarding the dairy industry and creamery business to aid in the development of the industry in the state. The Werner creamery was taken over June 1, 1920, under one year lease.

No report has been found of the work done at the creamery, or any financial statement complete.

One report, as of January 4, 1921, indicated that in the first six months of operation the creamery received $76,942.19, disbursed 56,909.16, $33.03 was unaccounted for and in addition disbursed from another fund $8,822.55, indicating that the loss in operation of the creamery for six months was nearly $9,000.

The Werner Co-operative Creamery was leased by Commissioner Hagen for one year, beginning June 1, 1920, for a rental of $875.00. The lease was not renewed. Operation ceased last winter.

Recently a bill for storage on a Ford truck was received by the department from a local garage. The truck is said to have burned up in a fire in the garage, and was not insured. The original purchase price of the truck was $780, with some extra equipment. The bill for storage covered a period from July 17, 1921, to October 27, 1921 the day of the fire.

PACKING PLANT STRIKE CALLED BY UNION HEAD

Packers Declare Distribution Would Not Be Seriously Affected By Strike

Chicago, Dec. 3—Declaring that the shop representation system inaugurated by the Big Five packers did not represent the sentiment of the employes and that they did not approve the wage reductions of 10 per cent which went into effect last Monday, Cornelius Hayes, president, and Dennis Lane, secretary, of the Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen of North America today sent out instructions for a strike next Monday.

Packing plants in about 15 cities and 45,000 men will be affected, Mr. Hayes said.

The packers declared that a strike would not seriously hamper the work of distributing meat products as the unions were not represented heavily enough to affect the plants should the organized men walk out.

DAIL CABINET WILL CONSIDER ENGLAND'S PLAN

Latest Proposals For Peace In Ireland To Be Discussed At Cabinet Meeting

CHANGES IN NEW TERMS

Some Advances Are Contained From Previous Proposals, It Is Said

London, Dec. 2.—(By the A. P.)—The British government's latest proposals for settlement of the Irish question will be considered by the cabinet of the Dail Eireann tomorrow. The new terms which were handed to the Sinn Fein delegates in written form show some advances over the government's previous proposals and the government felt the necessity of giving them fullest consideration at a cabinet session.

The terms, it is said, concede from the beginning the Sinn Fein's claim for the unity of Ireland. Ulster must be included within the scheme from the start, according to the plan, as it now appears to have been framed and must remain in for six months. After that period and before the end of the year Ulster is to be given the option to withdraw and if she does there must be a boundary commission to determine the exact area which is fairly entitled to go with her.

The Sinn Fein has neither accepted nor rejected these proposals, but has promised to consider them finally tomorrow.

The question of allegiance is still the crux of the situation but efforts are being made to devise some form of declaring allegiance which, it is hoped by the government, the Sinn Fein will accept.

ATTACK JAIL

Belfast, Dec. 2.—(By the A. P.)—An attack on the jail at Londondeery with the object of releasing the prisoners there was repulsed by the police guards today. Two policemen were killed and several of the attackers captured.

The party gained entrance to the jail undetected and their presence was not discovered until a patrol of policemen saw a rope ladder handing over the wall and gave the alarm.

Upon investigation the military guard found two constables who guarded the Sinn Feiners lying dead in the corridors. They had been drugged and strangled. The Republican rescue party had forced the doors of ten cells when the guards surprised them at their work. The military opened fire, the Republicans replying with revolvers. Pandemonium prevailed for sometime but the guards finally gained the upper hand without losing any of the prisoners at the same time capturing three young Londonderry men who made a final attempt to release the prisoners.

FEDERAL AID FOR HIGHWAYS

New Bill in Congress Would Give State $1,477,350.00

The passage recently of the Good Roads bill by the senate made $75,000,000.00 available for road construction in the states for the remainder of this fiscal year, of which $1,204,060.31 is allotted to South Dakota, $1,477,350.00 to North Dakota, and $2,400,400.00 to Montana, by the Federal Bureau of Roads. Administration of the Federal Highway Act is vested in the Secretary of Agriculture, and under him, the Bureau of Public Roads.

Each state must select a connected road system not exceeding 7 per cent of its road mileage for improvement with federal aid. Both interstate highways and intercounty highways receive federal aid, the amount of which must not exceed on any project 50 per cent of the estimated cost.

All highways in the interstate system must have a surfaced width of at least 18 feet unless a narrower width is deemed sufficient by the Secretary of Agriculture. In case a federal aid highway is not properly maintained by the state, the state will be given 90 days' notice at the end of which time the Secretary of Agriculture may maintain it out of the state's allotment and refuse to approve further projects until reimbursement is made by the state.

All features of the act have been strongly advocated by the American Farm Bureau Federation, representing the state farm bureaus, and the American Association of State Highway Officials.

STOLEN AUTO IS RECOVERED

The automobile stolen from the garage of O. R. Billington at Driscoll was recovered in an abandoned farm building 12 miles south of Steele according to information received by State's Attorney McCurdy. Valuable equipment and robes were missing from the car, which is not believed to have been badly damaged.

BRITAIN TRIES TO HARMONIZE JAPAN'S CLAIM

Endeavoring to Effect Settlement on Allotment of Ship Tonnage

BRIAND ARRIVES HOME

London, Dec. 2.—(By the Associated Press.)—Prime Minister Lloyd George, it was learned this afternoon, is definitely planning to leave England for the United States Dec. 12.

Washington, Dec. 2.—(By the Associated Press.)—Hope for an early settlement of the dispute arising from Japan's request for an increase from 60 to 70 per cent in the capital ship tonnage alloted her under the American limitations plan centered today in the efforts of Great Britain to bring the Japanese views into harmony with those of the United States.

The situation was expected to remain at a status quo today while the Japanese delegates in the light of this new development communicated further on the question with Tokio, where it is understood to be under consideration by the Japanese cabinet as well as by the diplomatic and advisory council.

Meanwhile principals on both sides of the controversy refused to view the situation as a deadlock today.

MORSE IS HELD IN FRANCE FOR U. S. GOVERNMENT

Shipbuilder and Financier is Arrested as Soon as He Lands From Liner

WILLING TO RETURN

Presence Wanted in Connection with Investigation of Ship Contracts

Havre, Dec. 2.—(By the A. P.)—Charles W. Morse, the American shipbuilder, who arrived here today on board the liner Paris from New York, declared his willingness to go back to the United States by the next returning steamer.

"I am willing to return to America by the first boat and so I have wired the United States district attorney," he told the correspondents on board the Paris today.

He declared he was unaware his presence in Washington might be desired in connection with an investigation with his ship contracts until he was informed last night that several operatives from the Paris police department were watching for his arrival.

"I am over here because of ill health," he added, "but I am willing to return even at the expense of jeopardizing my life."

ON FRENCH INSTRUCTIONS

Paris, Dec. 2.—(By the A. P.)—The Havre police received instructions this morning to obtain the detention of Charles W. Morse, American ship builder and financier as soon as he landed from the liner Paris. The French police acted on request of the American embassy which received belated cable instructions to obtain the arrest and detention of Morse upon a charge on which he can be extradited.

The French authorities say they will hold the American financier until the embassy received paper formally demanding his extradition.

"PROVISIONAL RETENTION."

Washington, Dec. 2.—(By the A. P.)—Provisional retention of Charles W. Morse, ship builder and financier, who reached Havre today on the steamship Paris has been requested of the French government by the American embassy at Paris, it was said today by officials at the state department.

U. S. DEPARTMENT AROUSED.

Washington, Dec. 2.—Aroused by the departure of Charles W. Morse, New York ship builder, from the country just as the government is about to place before a federal grand jury its investigations of his transactions with the shipping board, officials of various departments considered what means may be taken to bring him back to the United States.

Meanwhile, Erwin A. and Harry F. Morse, sons of Charles W. Morse, through their attorney, Wilton J. Lambert, issued a statement here declaring their father had sailed on the Paris under a passport to him in his own name and without knowledge of the government's intended action before the grand jury. It was their belief, the statement said, that the government knew Morse had sailed before this contemplated action became known.

Sails for Operation.

Morse sailed under the advice of his physician "that he would have to undergo an operation if he desired to save his life," the statement said, adding that he would return whenever his presence was desired, "and when he is in physical condition to do so."

Justice department officials declared nothing was known of Mr. Morse's departure until it was reported from New York. Morse was granted a passport several months ago, state department officials said, and this passport presmably was good at the time of his sailing. No passport is necessary for a citizen of this country to leave the United States, it was explained, but the state department issued them as the most convenient proof of American citizenship which is required for admission to virtually all foreign countries.

High Officials Silent.

High government officials were not inclined to discuss the efforts being made to effect the return of Morse to this country. Secretary Hughes conferred with Ambassador Jusserand of France at the state department, but it was not disclosed whether the subject of Morse's departure on the Paris which, under international law, is in French territory, was under discussion.

Secretary Denby said he had not been requested to furnish a destroyer to take Morse off the Paris and that he could not have taken him off a foreign ship if he had been asked to do so.

PRINCE'S PARROT DIES.

London, Dec. 2.—"Polly," pet parrot of the prince of Wales, died at York House, St. James Palace. The parrot refused to eat after the prince's departure for India.

FEELS OPTIMISTIC OVER DES LACS OIL PROJECT

H S Johnson, general manager of the Des Lacs Western Oil Company of Minot, has been in the city a portion of this week looking after business matters pertaining to his company. In a conversation with The Tribune reporter Mr. Johnson expressed himself as highly pleased with the progress thus far made in the deep well his company is drilling west of Deslacs in Ward County. He stated that the well is now 3,924 feet deep, and that the big drill had encountered the Dakota sands, that are always sought by oil well drillers as the source of he oil supply Mr. Johnson sates that the Dakota sands run from the Texas oil fields to the newly discovered oil fields within the Arctic circle. He believes that there is oil production in the well at the present time, but as to the amount of production he would not say, as there is 3,500 feet of water in the well They now have a carload of pipe on the way, and just as soon as this arrives they are going to shut off the water and then drill forty or fifty feet into the Dakota sands, if the heavy head of gas in the well will allow this

Mr Johnson states that this is the fifth strata of oil bearing sand that the drill has encountered in the 3 924 foot well. The sand they are in now bids fair to be quite thick and should bring a great producer. The last 1,000 feet in the well has shown up strong in fossil formations and oil bearing shale. The shale could have been mined and treated with the result that a heavy yield of shale oil would have been produced.

The temperature in the bottom of the well, according to government tests is 123 degrees, practically the same as the wells in the Texas and Oklahoma fields test, while the Pennsylvania and western oil wells do not test as high in temperature. This is a mighty good sign, according to Mr. Johnson, as he states, all the large producing wells in Texas and Oklahoma have a very high temperature So that the extreme depth of the Des Lacs well is the deepest well that has been drilled in the entire northwest

Mr Johnson is very confident of the future of the Des Lacs Western Oil Company, which is a North Dakota corporation, officered by North Dakota people. They have over 100,000 acres of leases in North Dakota, and also a large amount of acreage in Montana under lease.

The drilling of the Des Lacs well is really a pioneer movement. So much has been said and written about the possibility of oil being found in North Dakota in paying commercial quantities, that it would seem that the only right thing to do would be to complete the well and settle for all time the question of the truth of the statement that has been so oft repeated by men who have had experience in matters of this kind. A large number of North Dakota people are interested in the project, not so much for the fortune that would come with bringing in a producing oil well, but to satisfy themselves that we have oil in paying quantities within the state, thus providing another great natural resource that will add wealth to the commonwealth

Mr Johnson has for the past three years maintained that oil in paying quantities will be obtained from the western half of North Dakota and the eastern half of Montana Recent discoveries in Montana seem to bear him out in this belief, and with the showing of oil in the Des Lacs well he feels more confident than ever that North Dakota is on the threshold of a pleasant surprise as regards oil production Advertisement

N. D. WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION BUREAU HANDLED 1331 AWARDS —DISALLOWING ABOUT 200 OTHERS

$1,000,000.00 Is At Present Available For Use Of the Bureau

DECLARED 15% DIVIDEND

North Dakota's Workmen's Compensation bureau cut its rate in eighty-eight per cent of the classifications, awarded a dividend of fifteen per cent to certain classes of employers handled 1331 awards and dis-allowed about 200 others according to the report of the fiscal year filed with Governor Nestos late yesterday. While the figures presented are those for the year preceding June 30th 1921, the condition of the fund at present is such, according to John Steen, State Treasurer that more than one million dollars is at present available for the use of the bureau.

The report which gives the figures for the completion of twenty-two months of the state's experience in running the Workmen's Compensation Bureau follows

"Compensation insurance for the first fiscal year were necessarily based on general accident experience of other states. When computing the insurance rates for the second fiscal year, we had as an additional factor, ten months accident experience in North Dakota, which made possible a decrease of rate in most of the classifications of industry, there being a few classifications where the accident experience made it necessary for a slightly increased rate. For this our third fiscal year the twenty-two months experience in North Dakota, together with the conditions of the compensation fund made it possible to decrease the rate of eighty-eight per cent of the classifications, maintaining the same rate in the remaining 12 per cent of the classifications that prevailed during the preceding year.

Declare Dividends

"Due to the condition of the Workmen's Compensation Fund the Board found it possible on September 27, 1921 to declare a 15 per cent Dividend based upon the earned premium of the past year; such dividend to be paid to employers having insurance prior to July 1, 1921, and paid on the adjustment at the first expiration date following June 30, 1921; but not to employers whose accident experience had given them a penalty under the rules of this bureau or to employers against whom a death claim was pending as of February 28, 1921. This means, to the employers as a whole a great saving in insurance cost.

As of November 18, 1921, there has been refunded to employers a total of $27,751.12 as dividends and $13,911.71 as credit merit premiums. There are still four or five thousand employers, as this report goes to print, yet to receive the dividend and the bureau each day is able to compute and send dividend refunds to many employers.

In the foregoing financial statement items under "Income" need no explanation.

The first item of "Claim Payment" in the amount of $156,999.16, under Disbursements, is the actual amount of money paid to the injured workmen during the fiscal year. Bear in mind that this item of claim payments does not constitute the total cost of accidents throughout the year, but simply the amount of the total cost of accidents—plus remaining cost of previous year, that were paid. Many injuries in one year necessitate the paying of pensions extending into future years. There was approximately $300,000 00 awarded on claims during the past fiscal year.

Administrative Expense

Administrative expense for the year in the amount of $46,749 76 is a trifle lower than the same expense for the previous year and amounts to 7 3 per cent of the total income. The item of Catastrophe re-insurance of $12,000 00 is for the protection of the fund and is fully explained in the Actuarial Statement in this report.

The item under Liabilities of "Claim Reserves, etc. $512,794 70 consists of the following: Unearned Premium Reserve $176,767 19, Liability on Awards made, $252,027.51; Estimated Liabilities, $85,000 00. The unearned Premium Reserve, represents the premium collected and included in receipts that are unearned as of date of this statement. Liability on Awards made, represents the remaining amount of unpaid compensation that is being paid now in bi-weekly payments, i e claimant is awarded $20,000.00 payable in the amount of $40.00 bi-weekly, and to date we have paid $1,000.00 on this award, leaving as unpaid liability the amount of $19,000. Estimated Liabilities, represents the amount we believe it will take to pay claims which we have on file as of date of this statement that have not been adjusted; also a small amount allowed to cover claims unreported as of date of this statement although accidents occurred during the period represented by this report. The "Liability on Awards Made of $252,027.51" and 'Estimated Liabilities of $85,000.00" are full maturity value of figures and do not purport to be the present value, due to the fact that all interest on Reserves is credited to the general fund as Income.

"The Statutory Surplus Reserve is created by Law to assure the perpetual solvency of the fund.

Elective Claims.

An elective claim is where the employer has failed to comply with the North Dakota Workmen's Compensation Act by paying his premium into the North Dakota Workmen's Compensation Fund and during such period of non-compliance has an accident occur to one of his men. In each such case the injured workman (or if killed his dependents) has the right of bringing his claim to the Workmen's Compensation Bureau, whereupon the Bureau will make an award upon the basis of the scale of benefits prescribed by the Workmen's Compensation Act. But instead of the Bureau's award being paid from the fund the employer is required to pay the same direct to the claimant. Item on Catastrophe Re-Insurance from Actuarial Statement

"By referring to the foregoing financial statement it will be observed that the Fund has paid $8,000 for catastrophe re-insurance. This reinsurance has been purchased to protect the fund, the employers and the claimants against any serious loss. If the fund has a single accident which involves a loss in excess of $15,000.00 the re-insurance company is required to pay any loss over and above such $15,000.00 up to a maximum of $125,000 00. For example, if the fund should have a catastrophe accident costing the fund $140,000.00, the re-insurance company would have to pay the fund $125,000 00 to cover this loss. If the fund should have two separate catastrophe accidents costing $140,000 00 each, the re-insurance company would be required to pay the fund $250,000. In consequence the fund is protected against any shock of any serious loss."

Pierre S D Dec 2—Announcement has been made by Governor W H McMaster that he has entered into a contract with the Bureau of Municipal Research of New York for an efficiency survey of all state offices and institutions as authorized by the legislature last [illegible]. Work on the survey will begin January 15 1922 according to Governor McMaster.

"The purpose of this survey" the governor explained, "is to consolidate various commissions and departments to establish a central purchasing agency to install a uniform accounting system in all departments and institutions and to place employees under civil service with the view that like service shall receive like pay. It will result in an efficiency system of state affairs that will mean a big saving to the tax payers of the state."

The sum of $25 000 was appropriated by the legislature for this purpose. The law specifies that under the direction and supervision of the governor, a detailed and thorough-going examination shall be made of the methods and practices employed by all state officers and employees and that all such officers and employees must furnish such information as may be necessary for the investigations. The efficiency experts employed must submit to the governor by November 1, 1922, a complete and comprehensive report of their investigations and examinations and shall include statements of their findings and of their recommendations for such changes or improvements as will in their judgment result in greater economy in the transaction of the state's business.

How Many Objects in this Picture Start With the Letter "C"

That's what you are to determine. Sounds easy, doesn't it? And it is easy. Without any trouble whatever you can readily see such objects as "Cow," "Calf," "Cigar," "Cup," etc., can't you? Well the others are just as easy to see, but the idea is to see who can find the most. Fifteen cash prizes will be given to the fifteen best lists of words submitted in answer to this puzzle. The person sending in the largest and most nearly correct list of objects shown in the picture, starting with the letter "C" will win first prize, second best second prize, etc.

Young and Old, Join In The Fun

The Farmers' Dispatch, The St. Paul Dispatch and Pioneer Press announce today another interesting and amusing puzzle game—a puzzle that is different from the ordinary and a game in which all can participate. Get out a pencil or your pen and ink and start making up a list of words you can find in the picture above that start with the letter "C". It is not a trick puzzle and all objects are clearly shown. Nothing is hidden and you don't need to turn the picture upside-down nor tilt it to one side or the other. It is interesting, educational and fascinating. Nothing hard, just different. Yes, all join in—old folks middle-aged and young folks. See who can find the most "C" Words. As soon as you have your list made up, send it in and try for the big prizes.

You Can Win $1,000

If your list of "C-Words" is awarded FIRST, SECOND or THIRD prize by the judges you will win $35 but if you would like to win more than $35, we are making the following special offer whereby you can win bigger cash prizes by sending in one or two subscriptions with remittance to cover to be delivered by mail or carrier (new or renewal).

HERE'S HOW. If your answer to the "C-Word" Picture Puzzle wins FIRST, SECOND or THIRD prize and you have sent in ONE subscription to the Daily St. Paul Dispatch or Daily Pioneer Press (by Mail or Carrier) or 5 one year subscriptions to the Farmers Dispatch (semi-weekly) you will receive $350 instead of $35. FOURTH prize $150. FIFTH prize $100, etc. (See second column of figures in prize list)

OR if your answer wins FIRST, SECOND or THIRD prize and you have sent in TWO subscriptions to the Daily St. Paul Dispatch or Daily Pioneer Press (by mail or carrier) or 10 one year subscriptions to The Farmers' Dispatch you will receive $1,000 in place of $35. FOURTH prize $300. FIFTH prize $200, etc. (See third column of figures in prize list.)

How is that for a liberal offer? Just think, there are three $1,000 prizes. Therefore if you win FIRST, SECOND or THIRD and have qualified your answer by sending in the required number of subscriptions you will win $1,000. It takes only two subscriptions (two new or one new and one renewal) to either daily paper or 10 one year subscriptions either new or renewal to The Farmers' Dispatch to qualify for the big $1,000 Rewards. You can do this with very little effort. Your own subscription may count as one. [illegible] subscriptions (by mail or carrier) to start at any future date.

OBSERVE THESE SIMPLE RULES

1. Any man, woman or child residing outside of St. Paul and Minneapolis who is not an employe of The Dispatch Printing [illegible] or a member of an employe's family may submit an answer.

2. All answers must be mailed on or before December 1[illegible]th 1921.

3. Answers should be written on one side of the paper only and words numbered consecutively—1, 2, 3 etc. Write your full name and address on each page in the upper right hand corner. If you desire to write anything else use a separate sheet.

4. Only words found in the English Dictionary will be counted. Do not use hyphenated [illegible] [illegible]

[illegible]

9. Subscriptions (both new and renewals) by mail or carrier outside of St. Paul and Minneapolis will be accepted. However in qualifying for the $1,000 Bonus Rewards at least one NEW subscription must be sent. A new subscriber is anyone who is not now receiving the Daily St. Paul Dispatch or Daily Pioneer Press by mail or carrier since December 1st 1921. Farmers' Dispatch subscriptions may be new or renewals.

10. [illegible]

Mr. Farnum To Speak On Life Of Roosevelt

Hon. Charles Farnham of St. Paul will deliver his address on "Roosevelt -the Man" at the American Legion hall this evening. The meeting has been called for 8 o'clock and everyone is invited to attend this address which promises to be of unusual interest.

Mr. Farnham, who is traveling under the auspices of the St. Paul Association of Commerce, is reputed to be a polished orator. He is returning from a tour to the Pacific coast and in all places his oration has been highly praised.

Mr. Farnham spoke in Dickinson last night. A telegram was received today by the Bismarck Town Crier's club from the Dickinson Rotary and Town Crier's clubs stating that Mr. Farnham is an eloquent orator and has a great message to deliver here tonight.

It is expected that a large number of Bismarck people will gather at the legion hall this evening to hear this interesting speaker. Dancing will follow the address.

School Attendance Is On the Increase

The enrollment in the city schools as shown by the records of December 1, by buildings is as follows:

Wachter School	181
Richholt School	249
Will School	449
William Moore School	279
High School	350
Total	1598

The daily attendance for the past school month was but 1283 which is about 85 per cent of the enrollment. This was due to epidemics in the city. It should be noted, however, that the number enrolled includes the names of all who have dropped out of school or left the city. The Wachter School experienced the largest decrease in daily attendance. Conditions are now better throughout the city and many are returning to school who have been under quarantine or out for similar reasons. The grade reports show 56 visits from the city superintendent.

THE WRONG ROAD

If it could get into the history books, it would read like this: "Nov. 24, 1921—A Thanksgiving day excursion carried 1000 scientists and professional men to Staten Island, in New York harbor, where they witnessed the tearing down of a chimney, 148 feet high, 47 feet in diameter at the base. Despite the huge size, this smokestack was razed in the record-breaking time of 55 minutes."

The history books would ignore the chimney's usefulness and the fact that it took two months and two days to build it.

History is 98 per cent a record of destruction.

It is designed to teach us what man has done. But it clings almost entirely to recording what man has undone—destroyed.

An excellent movement is gaining headway in America, to revise history as it is taught in our schools.

What the child gets now is mostly a record of slaughter and destruction—the history of ill will between England and America, North and South, races, religions and politics.

It took over 60 years of organized fighting, and thousands of years of progess, to give our women the ballot. Yet this, under our present system, will get less space in school history than some battle that took only a few hours and had an infinitely less effect.

What happened in 1776? The Declaration of Independence, of course. But some school histories have forgotten to tell you that in the same year James Watt sold the world's first steam engine.

The real history of the growth and progress of our countyr is not a matter of battles or Indians shot by Daniel Boone and other explorers.

The Monitor, which fought the Merrimac in 1862, was the first armored ship. Every school child has had the marvels of that invention drilled into his brain. But he reads mighty little of the more important inventions—typewriter, moving picture, electric light and motor.

History practically ignores the evolution of barbaric government into American democracy, touching, however, with great emphasis, on bloody battles incidential to the progess.

A world, weary of war, wants to disarm, though it has only partly convinced its diplomats. We are turning from destruction to construction, and the first step in that direction should be a complete revision of history text-books for schools.

School histories now in use lie—not that they do not tell the truth, but because of what they omit.

To revise history, the government might organize a commission of persons high in the public esteem, with intelligence broad enough to enable them to be impartial.

CHEER THE ARMY OF 504,000,000 DOLLARS

Some of the richest American families got their start by staying out of the cyclone cellar during the depression that followed the Civil War. Cyclone cellar is safe. But, outside, you can grab off the flying wealth.

More big fortunes are now in the making. Six hundred and thirty-four new business enterprises, with a capitalization of more than $100,000 each, started during October. Their combined capifal is $504,000,000.

The adventurous dollars will help General Prosperity. Dollars set loose in hard times are the hardest fighters.

Timidity is the milk that keeps business alive. That's what Edison meant when he blamed hard times on fear.

Nothing venture, nothing gain.

DELUSION

The dollar is wearing a mask these days, fooling many. It no longer is an accurate measure of business activity, because of its fluctuating purchasing power. An illustration:

One of the big mail-order houses moans that its business is 22 per cent less than a year ago. So it is—in dollars.

But this company in September got 42,249 orders and shipped 5175 tons of goods, compared with 30,861 orders and 3438 tons of shipments in September, 1920. Actually, business is better than a year ago. To appreciate the gain, and cheer us up, maybe we should do our figuring in German marks.

ASSASSIN

Nakaoka, assassin of Premier Hara of Japan, is said to be proud of his deed, regarding himself as a martyr and benefactor of his country. He has another guess coming. A new premier will take Hara's place and the Japanese government will run along as usual. Hara was merely a tool of a bullet-proof system.

An assassin usually has about as much effect on the course of events as Xerxes, who, enraged at the ocean, had his soldiers punish it by slicing the waves with their swords.

An interesting execution awaits Nakaoka. Officially, he will be "hanged," cable dispatches predict. Only a Dante can picture the tortures that await an oriental assassin.

AUDIENCE

A play from England recently failed in New York. Brady, theatrical producer, lamented "the decline of the drama in America" and commented that the public wants light stuff.

Now cables says that "Heartbreak House," George Bernard Shaw's latest play, has failed in London. It was too brilliant, not enough intellectuals in London to support it, says its producer. Critics say it had too much talk, not enough action.

A producer usually blames the public taste when something uninterestingly fails to interest.

PLEASURE

Americans are spending four times as much for candy, gum and ice cream concoctions as on the army, according to government statisticians.

Well, what of it?

Money spent for war purposes goes for creation of misery.

What we spend for chewing gum and sweets adds to the joy of life. All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy. Within reasonable bounds, the luxuries of pleasure are absolute necessities.

UNUSUAL

At Middleton, Conn., a storekeeper was convicted of murder. While the court was sentencing him to be hanged, his son Rudoph was being married within a mile of the scene of the murder. The telegraph clicks this: "Rudolph knew his father was to be sentenced. But he chose that particular day for his wedding."

An interesting piece of psychology. Can the movies beat it? Rarely. What was Rudolph's purpose? How do you explain it?

EDITORIAL REVIEW

Comments reproduced in this column may or may not express the opinion of The Tribune. They are presented here in order that our readers may have both sides of important issues which are being discussed in the press of the day.

THE PEOPLE HAVE DECLARED FOR PEACE

The people have declared "the universal longing." It is the capacity of government to satisfy that longing which will now be tested. They will not fail to satisfy it, they will not dare to fail, if the popular will for peace continues to bear upon the delegates throughout the conference.—Syracuse Post-Standard.

THREE NEW ARGUMENTS FOR THE CONFERENCE

Three items of routine news in a single morning's grist ought to carry an appealing interest to the delegates assembling in Washington for the conference for the limitation of armament. Experiments have begun with a new type of American submarine which has a striking radius of 10,000 miles. Successful tests are reported of a device which our scientists were perfecting in the last days of the World war. It is a flying torpero, made to be charged with death by gas or explosive. It is rather an anti-climax to mention that of all the expenditures of our government from its foundation, war items have counted 78.5 per cent.—New York World.

SHORT CUTS TO LONG LIFE

A Chicago physician is the latest to offer a short cut to a long life. His trick is even simpler than Professor Voronoff's grafting of apes' glands. It is radium pills!

Carlyle, writing his "Past and Present" to bare the industrial and social ills of Britain, was furious with those who demanded a single, quick cure to put all to rights. When the biologist in Shaw's play "Back to Methuselah," broaches his theory that men might live 300 years, the politicians at once wanted to know the name of the medicine. Perplexed and troubled, men have always dreamed of some direct and magic way out. Be their difference physiological, social or mental, they have ever been ready to cry for a patent cure. The alchemist in the middle ages toiled long in search of a way to turn the grosser metals into gold. A little later the Spanish followed Ponce de Leon in quest of the fountain of youth. Some thing, some device or medicine, would, they thought, bring riches or happiness if only it could be found.

This persistent faith in a simple nostrum besets many today. A bookseller tells us that by reading fifteen minutes a day we can become educated. Get wise "quick." Up in Omaha a prosecutor said recently that the farmers of Nebraska had lost $250,000 in unsound securities. Get rich "quick." A doctor announces he has a tablet or serum that restores youth to the aged. Get healthy "quick."—St. Joseph News Press.

ADVENTURE OF THE TWINS

By Olive Barton Roberts

Did Kip steal the key to the Enchanted Cupboard in Brownieland" asked Nancy of the next gnome

He don't tell me," he answered.

"Did he bring it here?" she asked running to his next neighbor

He did if he didn't leave it behind" was the reply

"Where did he put it?" she asked another one

"Nowhere and he brought it" came the answer

"Oh, oh, oh!" cried Nancy stamping her foot "I think you're all horrid You haven't told me a thing!"

"It won't do you any good to get angry," remarked Crookabone "We all know that you and Nick came to find Kip and get the key to the Enchanted Cupboard in Brownieland so you can get the magic shovels and help Pim Pim to dig the glittering stod to make the Christmas toys. But I'll answer your questions for you. Kip did take the key, and he came here with it and it's hidden under the largest lump of coal in my cellar. There! Now I hope you are happy, for all the good it will do you. Are you?" he asked sharply.

"N—" Nancy nearly forgot again Crookabone had tried over and over to trap the Twins into saying "yes" or "no" so they should turn upside down and he could steal their Magic Green Shoes. "Not very," she said instead.

"Now you come Nick," said Crookabone motioning Nancy away. "Ask anything you like and be sure that you will be answered well."

So Nick took Nancy's place in the center of the circle and began at once. "Where is your house" he asked Crookabone "Where do you live?"

"Across the street from the chimney sweep," was the quick answer, "around the corner from the baker's and half a block from the bean-pot man's. Now you know."

"Humph," said Nick.

SALT LAKE CITY BUSINESS MAN REPORTS GAIN

Well Known Utah Citizen Adds Ten Pounds While Wife Gains 28 Pounds in Weight

Don J. Perry 374 Quince St., well-known Salt Lake City, Utah, business man in reporting remarkable gains in weight both by himself and his wife, says

"My wife gained 28 pounds and I gained ten pounds in a few weeks by taking Tanlac. The change in Mrs. Perry is all the more remarkable, as she had been going down hill steadily for four or five years. She got no nourishment from her food and I don't believe she averaged three hours sleep out of the 24.

"While my condition was not as serious as hers, I had been under the weather for some time, had no appetite and was bothered a good deal by indigestion. Tanlac has certainly proved all and more than is claimed for it with us."

ARKANSAS TO HAVE WHOLE TIME OFFICER

Governor Says He Will Not Leave State During Term

Little Rock, Ark. Dec 2. A pledge to himself that he would not leave the state during his incumbency, has caused Governor Thomas C. McRae of Arkansas to decline urgent invitations that he attend the annual conference of state governors at Charleston, S. C., in December.

Governor McRae's opinion that a chief executive of a state should not leave the state during his tenure in office was expressed freely during his campaign for governor, and although he did not make it a campaign pledge, he endeavored to leave the impression he said that only matters of gravest importance would cause him to go outside of Arkansas, if elected. Thus far he has not done so.

Three invitations to attend the governors' conference in Charleston have been received by Governor McRae, and rejected.

Another pledge made by the governor before his election was that he would not permit himself to become liable to criticism directed at other governors for the number of pardons issued. In almost a year as governor he has issued only two pardons—one to a man who had finished his term, and one to a woman whose health demanded freedom.

HAZEN VICTOR OVER HALLIDAY

Halliday, Dec 2—Hazen defeated Halliday, 29 to 11, in basket ball here. The Hazen team has three consecutive victories to its credit thus far this year. For Halliday, O'Neil and Rush did good work and the team shows improvement over last year. In the game Smith was the high point-getter for Hazen and Reif also did good work. Hazen plays Sawyer next

TWO SUCCESSFUL HUNTING PARTIES

A successful hunting party during the deer season was composed of C. W McGray, H. P. Goodard, John L. Larson and B. E. Jones. They camped at the north end of the Square Butter bottom north of Mandan. Three bucks were trophies of the hunters and a buck obtained by Mr. Jones was stolen from where it hung. The party reported more does and fawns were seen than in many years and if sportsmen observe the one-buck law there will be good deer hunting for many years. They reported that stealing or deers killet by persons who nad shot them and hung them up to freeze was a common practice.

Another successful party was composed of S. H. Clark, W. E. Lahr and W. M. Griffis.

ELSIE FERGUSON AT THE ELTINGE TONIGHT

"Footlight" granted by all critics to be the best of the Elsie Ferguson plays is shown at the Eltinge today and tomorrow.

Lizzie Parsons a new England girl determines to adopt a stage career and bids her relatives farewell.

She obtains an engagement as impersonator in vaudeville, and scores a great success by her impersonation of a Russian actress.

She signs a contract hiding her identity for ten years and appears as Lisa Parsinova, the Russian actress she has been impersonating.

Hubert Randolph a wealthy New Yorker, sees her performance and falls in love with her. Lizzie returns his love, but believing he loves the sentimental actress she is impersonating rather than herself the woman she battles with herself.

Oswald Kane agrees to release Lizzie from her contract on condition that her second self—Lisa Parsinova, disappears forever from the scene and that she shall not reveal her great impersonation.

Lizzie agrees and one day an empty boat is found in which are the rich costumes of Liza Randolph searches in vain for the body of his sweetheart.

Randolph meets Lizzie, plainly dressed and eating plain food. Over their pie and coffee he convinces her that whether she be Lizzie or Liza, American or Russian, he loves her for herself alone and both are happy.

Our old friend, the Skipper shows up on the same program in his Tooneville comedy offering, "The Skipper's Flirtation."

PICTURE PUZZLE GAME.

Elsewhere in today's issue will be found a large advertisement announcing a picture puzzle game arranged by the St. Paul Dispatch, which will, no doubt, prove very interesting for our readers, and especially for the little folks. The contest consists in ascertaining how many objects or articles in the picture start with the letter "C" and prizes are awarded to those finding the largest number. Our readers have already won liberal prizes as a result of competing in similar contests and there is no reason why some of the awards in this new picture puzzle game should not come to residents of this vicinity. Anyhow there is nothing like trying.

6-Foot Lawyer Looked Like Pumpkin

"I was often doubled up with pains in my stomach and was yellow as a pumpkin before taking Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, which 10 years ago saved my life. My friends had given up all hopes of my recovery, as the best doctors did not help me. Am enjoying the best of health now." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflamation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Adv.
